

I have been on the Indiana no-call list since it started, and have been extremely happy with it. I view with alarm any change that may occur by the imposition of a less restrictive limit on calls by the FCC. Leave Indiana's call list alone! It's working great.